NEXTIER BANK AND MANOR BANK
COMPLETE MERGER

Expands NexTier Footprint into Westmoreland County

BUTLER, PA May 1, 2017 –NexTier Bank, N.A. (“NexTier”), announced today the completion of the merger of Manor Bank (“Manor”) with and into NexTier effective April 30, 2017.

With nearly $1.2 billion in assets, NexTier Bank offers Western Pennsylvania businesses and consumers a comprehensive line of products and services, 28 convenient locations, and a focus on premium customer service. The combined organization will continue the commitment to community that both organizations have made a priority for well over a century.

Mark Karenchak, the current Chairman of the Board of NexTier Bank, will continue in this role. Clem Rosenberger, the President and CEO of NexTier Bank will continue to serve as the President and CEO of the combined entity. The current NexTier Executive team will remain in place.

The merger of Manor into NexTier enhances NexTier’s geographic footprint. “Our merger with Manor Bank provides us with the opportunity to serve individuals and businesses in Westmoreland County”, stated CEO, Clem Rosenberger. “Manor Bank customers will have access to more deposit options, tablet and mobile banking, a wide selection of consumer and commercial lending products, investment services through NexTier Wealth Management¹, and commercial and personal insurance through ESS NexTier Insurance Services.²”

“We are looking forward to working with the Manor Bank customers and continuing to meet their financial needs. Customers will benefit from a wider product selection, but will also continue to see the commitment to community Manor Bank has shown through the years,” continued Rosenberger.
