NexTier Bank Completes Purchase of Morgan Center in Butler

BUTLER, PA April 18, 2018 – NexTier Bank (www.nextierbank.com) today announced they have completed the purchase of Morgan Center in downtown Butler, Pennsylvania.

“As NexTier has continued to grow organically and through acquisition, our support staff has also grown. Our operations center is at full capacity. The Morgan Center building is in the heart of our market and a great space for our employees,” said Clem Rosenberger, CEO, NexTier Bank. “We were pleased to find a location that can accommodate our employees and shows our continued commitment to the Butler community.”

NexTier intends to remodel several floors of the building and expects employees to begin occupying the space by the first quarter of 2019.

“As a well-known businessman and entrepreneur, Mr. Morgan was a community leader and friend of Butler County. NexTier has been a tenant of Morgan Center for many years so we were very much aware of the quality and workmanship that went into this building. Mr. Morgan certainly made sure that this building would last, as will his legacy in Butler County. We are honored to be the next owners of Morgan Center”, added Rosenberger.
